August Board Meeting Agenda:

- 1) Vote to approve minutes from 8/31/17 approved
- 2) Vote to approve paint order approved
- 3) Plymouth Street as host to Special Olympics 10/15 (Doug) need 8 fields ½ of 9v9 starting around 9:00am. MEFC has games 11:30 field 21, 2:30 11 v 11- Doug and Des will work out schedule and field arrangements. Doug is meeting with Special Olympics and will work out the details of field size/goal size.

4) Columbus Day Tournament

Keith working on sponsorship- New England Recycling and C & S both main sponsors.

Concession stand- Creeden & Company may be on board for Columbus Day. Haven't worked out final details and finances. Keith is meeting with them this week.

63 teams registered (same as last year at this point; last year's final total was 92). Late registrants make scheduling difficult to do at last minute. Need 70 teams (without including sponsorship) to break even. Board members are asked to reach out to other coaches in BAYS division to personally let them know about tournament with link to tournament page to encourage interested teams. Capacity is roughly 95 teams depending on gender/age break down.

Kelly has already reached out to last year's team and previous year's teams.

Teri is working on parking, with DPW, fire, and police.

Larry is handling Porta-potty delivery

Grass needs to be cut lower- Larry said it is supposed to be addressed by DPW.

"Days of" board is needed to be present as much as possible and help out where needed

P.O. Box 1053, Mansfield, MA 02048

Registration location TBA- possibilities include MPlex, Mass Premier, BWW, Jake and Joes Patio, Friday 6-8/7-9. Amy will schedule.

Other open items:

- Steve has trouble finding refs for during the week make-up games. One option is to incentivize by paying $10 extra for during the week games. We may need to find parents to help ref or just use one adult ref.
- Monday October 2 need volunteer to pass out pizza at boys MHS game
- MHS night at Revs Sunday Oct. 15 aiming to sell 100 tickets from MYS working with Donna Harrington
- Andre is working on reviewing policy manual
- Teri is working on transition plan with Shannon- so far they have begun with corner kicks and goal kicks.
- Teri will blast in-town parents about parking in complex and Des will blast travel parents.
- Re-grading of parking lot is happening next week to fill pot holes.

5)Next meeting Wednesday, October 11 at MPlex 7:30-9:00
